

Your legal team needs to access files, depositions and court documents at any time and from anywhere.

Your practice needs legal IT services that empower your in-house and freelance staff. Our managed IT and cloud computing services make sure you represent your clients efficiently and professionally.

Managed Services for Law Firms

Our flexible, client-centric focus, deep knowledge of legal industry applications and security requirements, and commitment to long-term partnerships without long-term contracts set us apart in the local legal network support landscape.

SECURITY

- Two factor authentications for secure log on
- Data encryption across all devices and programs
- Secure Hosting, private hosting, hybrid support options
- The latest industry security tools available as a package or a la carte
- Mobile device management

DISASTER RECOVERY

- Redundant, high-speed network access
- PCI and SSAE-16 compliant data center for secure storage of all data, including e-mail and applications
- Compliance Archiving (Long term archiving)
- Live Archiving - access to your email during an outage

COMPLIANCE

- Long Term Email archiving and eDiscovery
- Compliance Suite: Encryption + Data Archiving
- Compliance Officer, receive access to audit reports
- Layered Redundancy, your mail archived on multiple servers